

Online Assessment Room

a bookable Zoom invigilation service for online exams that are scheduled outside of class time

Who can use the service?

Instructors teaching both in-person and online can book the Online Assessment Room. Assessments must be able to be administered and invigilated online.

Priority is given to individual:

students with academic accommodations

international students

students experiencing short-term absences

What are the benefits of booking this service?

- ✓ Provides flexible booking of assessment times
- ✓ Helps students keep up to date with their course work
- ✓ Students can write at the same time as class if having to isolate
- ✓ Can support complex accommodation plans from the CAL

Learn more about the service and book an assessment

teachanywhere.uvic.ca/online-assessment

The Online Assessment Room is operated by the Division of Learning and Teaching Support and Innovation (LTSI) in partnership with the Centre for Accessible Learning (CAL).

University of Victoria